

FIRST WASATCH COUNTY STAKE PRESIDENCY

President Abram Hatch

Thomas H. Giles
First CounselorHenry S. Alexander
Second Counselor

County. The wards at that time were Heber East, Heber West, Midway, Wallsburg, Charleston, Buysville, Upper Daniels, Center, Lake Creek, Francis, Benchcreek, Elkhorn, Riverdale and Woodland. In Uintah County there were Ashley Center, Mill District, Ashley Fork and Merrill Wards.

Some of the stake officers appointed at the time of stake organization were Thomas Todd, president of the Elders Quorum with Orson Hicken and Henry Ohlweiler as counselors. John M. Murdock was named president of the High Priests Quorum with John Jordan and Charles N. Carroll as counselors. Thomas Rasband was appointed to preside over the priests, Thomas Hicken Sr. to preside over teachers and J. Heber Moulton over the deacons. William Forman was named to act as the agent for the Presiding Bishop of the Church. Emma Brown

HOW BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS

p. 158

ABRAM HATCH
Successful merchant and business leader.

100 Years Ago

May 10, 1862—The destruction of the Provo Canyon road by storms was causing great inconvenience to those living in Wasatch County. They had to come down to Utah County to get their grain floured. Some of the people were having to use boiled corn and wheat in place of bread.